EPHRAIM AND THE BEAR.

How He Killed a Yearling Bear in a Fair Fight Without Weapons.

Old Ephraim Hatfield, father of Anse and Elias Hatfield, of McCoy-Hatfield, was a born fighter. He was also a mighty hunter, and had one ambition. It was to kill a yearling bear in a fair fight without any weapons other than those nature provided him with. Every day that he felt especially strong he would go out with his dogs and his boys, and, seeing a bear, would get him down and fight him. When Ephraim would begin to get the best of the encounter, he would call his boys to let loose the dogs. Year after year passed and Ephraim had not yet whipped a bear.

One day a fine yearling bear was seen, and as Guffy was climbing to a place of safety old man Hatfield cut off a piece of the animal's tail with a quick blow of his knife, and the bear came down. Ephraim threw his gun and knives to the boys and cried out: "Let's a likely varmint. Stand aside, boys, and watch 'o' dad. I'm comin' bar!" And he clutched the bear by the throat.

The animal got its paws around Ephraim, and they fought, rolling in every direction, until it was almost impossible to distinguish man from beast in the cloud. The boys held the dogs and encouraged the old man by shouting to him:

"Go it, pap! You've got 'em! Give it to 'im, dad!"

Down the hill the two rolled until they could roll no further.

"Let loose the dogs!" shouted the old man. "Let 'em loose! The critter's got me!"

But the boys thought the old man would never have a better opportunity to realize his ambition and whip a yearling bear and kept the dogs away.

Finally Ephraim, seeing that he was not to have assistance, began to use his feet and hands with an energy born of despair, and in half an hour he succeeded in choking the animal to death, but not until his clothes were torn to shreds and his face and body were covered with gaping wounds, from which the blood flowed so freely that it left a crimson trail wherever the man went. Dragging the carcass out of the pit Ephraim started after the boys, and it would have fared roughly with them, but they fled. The old man reached his home and was almost dead from loss of blood, but his ambition had been realized—he had whipped a yearling bear in a fair fight.

The boys hid out in the woods for several days, and would not return until their father, whose joy at his success had got the better of his pain and anger, sent them word that he would not whip them if they returned. Hatfield never wanted telling how he whipped a yearling bear, and his rousers equally proud of their father's achievement. Cincinnati Enquirer.

A GAME OF NINCPINS.

A Housewifely Story of a Deceased German Criminal.

In an imperial city lately a criminal was sentenced to be hanged who had a singular itching to play at nincpins. While his sentence was pronouncing he had the temerity to offer a request to be permitted to play once more at his favorite game at the place of execution, and then he said he would submit without a murmur.

As the last prayer of a dying man his request was granted. When arrived at the gallows spot he found everything prepared, the pins being set up and the bowl ready. He played with no little earnestness, but the sheriff at length, seeing that he showed no inclination to desist, privately ordered the executioner to strike the fatal blow as he stooped for the bowl.

The executioner did so, and the head dropped into the culprit's hand as he raised himself to see what had occurred. He immediately aimed at the wine, conceiving that it was the bowl which he grasped. All wine falling, the head landed exclaimed, "I have won the game!"—From the German.

His Account With His Dentist.

Brown has the reputation of being one of the most richly of men, but he pines himself on his incalculable sense of justice. For 15 years he owed a dentist $22 for filling a front tooth with gold, refusing to pay it because he said the bill was exorbitant. The other day the filling came out. He took the gold to a jewelry store and had it valued. Then he wrote to the dentist and in closed a check for his account, based on the following computation: "Actual value of the gold, $4.50; amount of labor (which I deem liberal), 50¢ for use of the tooth 15 years, $5; total, $5.00. I return gold in account and inclose check for the balance, $10."—Washington Post.

Her Choice.

A woman who has traveled largely in Japan mentioned in the course of a lecture the fact that the Japanese language does not contain an impolite word; hence there is no swearing in that happy land. She also stated that ascension was an unknown pleasure. As the audience dispersed, commenting favorably upon different points, an old woman remarked in a voice loud enough to be heard by all, "Well, for my part, I prefer a country where they kiss and cuss!"—Atlanta Constitution.

MOTHERS

and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its terrors, and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. "Thereby 'labor' and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents 'morning sickness' and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many suffer.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dear Sir—I took your "Favorite Prescription" previous to confinement and never did so well in my life. I am only two weeks since my confinement and I am able to do my work. I feel stronger than I ever did in six weeks before.

Yours truly,

Mrs. W. C. BAKER.

Tanks, Collier Co., Texas.

Dear Sir—I began taking your "Favorite Prescription" the first month of pregnancy, and have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your "Prescription." I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well.

We think it saved me a great deal of suffering. I was troubled a great deal with leucorrhoea also, and it has done a world of good for me.

Yours truly,

Mrs. W. C. BAKER.

THE PENSION BUSINESS

The Commissioner of Pensions has submitted his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior. It shows that on June 30th, 1894, there were 969,441 pensioners, and during the year 39,155 new pensions were granted and 4,026, whose names had been dropped, restored. There were 27,861 deaths and 14,575 pensioners dropped from the rolls during the year, making the number on the rolls June 30, 1895, 970,311, an increase during the year of 980.

No change is made in the pension law. The Commissioner thinks that the appropriation of $110,000,000 will be sufficient for the payment of pensions for the current fiscal year. The estimate for the next year are the same as for the present year, $140,000,000.

The Commissioner says that the work of the Board of Revision has been beneficial in discontinuing illegal pensions and discouraging the filing of claims without merit, and the work of the law division was excellent in detecting illegal practices among pension attorneys. Two hundred and ninety-four persons were convicted, the most important being attorneys with a large pension clientele.

The act of March 21, 1895, increasing the rate of certain pensioners $6 per month made an increase of $81,500 annually in the payment of pensions, and the act of March, 1893, which forbade the payment of pensions to non-residents of the United States, has decreased the payments during the last four months of 1895 about $275,000.

Notwithstanding there were 27,861 deaths in the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1895, the increase of pensioners during that year was 980. It is probable, as some of the veterans marry young women, that there will be pensions paid the widows of veterans of the war at the close of the next century.

AGAINST STATEHOOD IN UTAH

Fred J. Kiesel, a prominent business man of Ogden, Utah, has prepared a circular which shows the disadvantages which would result from the admission of Utah as a State. A copy of the circular is being mailed to every voter in the Territory. It advises the people to read, ponder and reflect before voting for the constitution. It says the Territorial taxes in 1894 amounted to $197,516.21, of which $293,776.15 was for school purposes, therefore to carry on the Territorial government cost the people only $198,740.05. The taxes for 1895 will be no greater, but in 1896, with Statehood taxes, will be increased $206,520, which would gradually grow greater. The executive department, the expenses of which are now paid by the general government, will cost $11,800, the legislative department, the expenses of which are now paid by the government, will cost $48,000; the judicial department and penitentiary, expenses of which are also paid by the government, will cost $130,900, and registration and election expenses, which are paid by the government, will cost $15,500.

Mr. Kiesel was a strong worker in the Liberal ranks in the days when the Liberals were arrayed against the Mormons. His circulars, it is believed, will have the effect of getting thousands to vote against the constitution, as the farmers of Utah, Mormons as well as Gentiles, fear increased taxation under Statehood. In addition to these there are thousands of Gentiles who believe that Statehood means another era of Mormon domination, as the shogun, to a great extent, controls the voters.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

Shocks of earthquake were felt yesterday morning in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Georgia. The shocks were light but distinct in many places and most severe in Gadsden, Alabama, and Charleston, Missouri, in both of which places buildings were wrecked and chimneys toppled over. Old residents along the Mississippi river say it was the most violent shake experienced in that vicinity since the destruction of New Madrid in South-eastern Missouri in 1811.

It is for scientists to explain the cause of this convulsion of nature which caused the whole Ohio and Mississippi Valleys to shake as if mother earth had the ague.

THE ONION QUESTION IN SCHOOLS

C. P. Huntington, President of the Southern Pacific Company and many times a millionaire, feasts daily on boiled rice and onions at the Palace Hotel, the most aristocratic caravansary west of New York. Mr. Huntington evidently likes onions, but Miss Foster, the school teacher at Pecatonica, Ill., does not, and in that respect at least differs from the great railroad magnate. One of Miss Foster's pupils, a boy who like Mr. Huntington likes onions, went to school surcharged with the odorous vegetable. The scent was offensive to the olfactory nerves of the teacher, though it is not stated that it was a part of her duty to kiss the boy, and she punished him for having eaten the loud-smelling bulb. The other scholars, believing that the boy had been unjustly punished, resolved upon revenge. The next day all ate onions, took onions to school and put them in their desks and in the wood box and the stove. The teacher lost control of her temper and punished several more of the scholars, desisting only when overcome by the offensive smell. Then the school directors took a hand in the matter. Some of them who liked onions were in favor of discharging the teacher, while other members of the board, whose noses revolted at the succulent bulb, insisted upon retaining her. At last accounts a compromise was effected by the adoption of a resolution requiring all pupils who eat raw or fried onions while attending school to finish the repast by chewing a sprig of parsley, as that herb deodorizes the breath of the onion eater and completely neutralizes the onion smell.

THE TRIAL OF DURRANT.

The Arguments in the Famous Case Closed.

A SENSATION AT OMAHA.

A Band of Burglars Operating at Santa Rosa.

THE DURRANT TRIAL.

The Case to be Submitted to the Jury To-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—District Attorney Barnes this morning resumed the argument in behalf of the prosecution in the trial of Theodore Durrant. He attacked the methods of the defense in the cross-examination of Mrs. Crosssett and Mrs. Noble. The fictitious strap was shown to one and deceptive questions were asked of the other. While, he said, he despised such methods, the prosecution had been strengthened by them, as the witnesses had not been entrapped. So far as Martin Quintan's testimony and his character was concerned, Barnes said that he contended that both were good. He said that Quintan told his story before either Mrs. Leak or Mrs. Crosssett were heard of. Quintan's testimony was corroborated by the statements of both women.

Barnes compared Durrant with other notorious criminals of both ancient and modern times. As compared with Durrant, Barnes said Cain was a mild and peaceable citizen. Professor Webster, the Harvard instructor who murdered Dr. Parkham, was a George Washington of murderers, and Holmes, the multi-murderer who is now on trial in Philadelphia is a gentleman and a scholar. When District Attorney Barnes closed the Court asked the jury whether they preferred to be charged at once and retire to make up their verdict or wait until to-morrow.

Judge Truman replied that the question had been considered by the jury and the members had decided that they would rather not be charged until to-morrow morning. As the Judge's charge is quite lengthy it is not expected that the jury will retire before to-morrow noon.

American Missionaries in Danger.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 31.—It is announced that three American notables of Trebizond, including a prominent ecclesiastic, are to be executed on the ground that they are responsible for recent rioting there. The Turks have stipulated that American missionaries, distributing relief to the suffering people of Sassoun, withdraw in three days. Otherwise the Turkish nobilities fear that there will be a massacre such as has just occurred at Bitlis. In view of the critical situation of affairs, United States Minister Terrell has advised the American missionaries to withdraw temporarily from Sassoun, and has notified the Turkish Government that the United States will hold it responsible for the lives of the American missionaries.

Reported Unsound.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 31.—The Riverside Banking Company at Riverside has been reported by the State Bank Commissioners to the Attorney General as unsound. Its continuance in business depends upon the action of the latter official. The existing bank is a relic of the financial disaster which swept the country last year. At that time the Riverside Banking Company suspended, but eventually resumed business with depositors, agreeing to pay in four annual installments. Failing to meet the first installment, the Bank Commissioners recommend that the bank be closed.

A Sensation at Omaha

OMAHA, October 31.—Quite a sensation was caused here by the publication of fac simile copies of the secret correspondence and archives of the Executive Conference Council of the A. P. A. in which candidates for positions before the conventions and applicants for clerkships under the city officers appeared before the Secret Junta of the A. P. A. as an initial step towards securing the places.

The Deadly Gasoline Stove.

PETERSBURG, Va., October 31.—The explosion of a gasoline stove resulted in the burning to death of Mrs. Fortescue Whittle, daughter-in-law of Bishop Whittle of the diocese of Virginia, probable fatal burning of the youngest child of Mrs. Whittle, and the serious if not fatal burning of Miss Lucy Stone, daughter of R. S. Stone.

Escaped From Joliet Prison.

CHICAGO, October 31.—At 1 o'clock this morning the Chicago police were notified that Charles Miller, serving a 20-year sentence in the Joliet penitentiary, had made his escape, and was supposed to be making his way to this city. His cell was found to be empty at midnight. He made his escape by cutting through a door into the hospital. Miller was sent from Lincoln county on charges of larceny, burglary and having burglar's tools in his possession.

The Big Fight.

HOT SPRINGS, October 31.—All chances of a fight here to-day has passed. The articles of agreement under which the match is made expire at midnight. There is no chance whatever of a fight coming off before that time. Then everything will be ready for a new deal all around. Fitzsimmons will fight Corbett for $10,000 a side or nothing. The only stipulation Julian will make is that the fight shall be to a finish. It is given out as authentic that the big fight will occur to-morrow.

A Suicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 31.—Mrs. H. B. Branch of the Chicago Lyceum Theater is dead at English's hotel, with a bullet hole through her breast. At her feet was found her little five-year-old boy screaming.

Branch and his wife were getting up an entertainment for the Young Women's Christian Association. Mrs. Branch killed herself, her husband says, because he goaded her to it.

A Minister Suicides.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 31.—The body of Rev. F. V. Splinder, an aged clergyman living at Shakopee, Minn., was found in the outskirts of the city this morning with three bullet holes near his heart. Near by was a 22-calibre revolver. The police have been unable to determine whether it was suicide or murder. Splinder was 84 years old, and retired from the Lutheran German ministry two years ago.

A Stage Robber Captured.

MERCED, October 31.—The man who has twice robbed the Coulterville stage near Etnell, this county, during the past six weeks was captured near Lagrange last night by Constable T. A. Mack of Merced. Mack had been on his track for four days and found him last night in the residence of Jim Long.

Johnson Beats the Record.

CARNA, Ontario, Oct. 31.—Agus McLeod, member of the Morgan and Wright Canadian team, yesterday broke the world's bicycle record for a mile, flying start, and that, too, without being paced. The time given is 1:38.25, two seconds faster than Johnson's world record.

A Divorce Granted.

FRESNO, October 31.—The jury in the Hart divorce case, after being out all night, brought in a verdict giving the husband, Leon Hart, a divorce. The jury found the wife guilty of repeated acts of impropriety with W. Grady, the politician and lawyer, some of which had been condoned.

BOGUS BULLION

The California Bank in Virginia City Pays a Thousand Dollars for It.

A man wearing a false beard and otherwise disguised, was arrested in Virginia City on suspicion of being a crook. He gave the name of McDonald and his arrest led to the discovery that he had been instrumental in getting an old Portuguese named Rosa to sell a bar of bogus bullion of little or no value at the Bank of California for $1,000 in coin. Rosa was known at the bank and as the bar had the name of S. Dowling, assayer, and gold $1,025 08, silver $58 70, stamped upon it and Dowling was a reputable assayer, well known to the bank officials, it was supposed to be all right and paid Rosa $1,043 10 in coin for it. It appears that Rosa, who is an ignorant man, knew nothing of the swindle, but was hired by McDonald to dispose of the bar. The officers were piloted by Rosa to a spot in the wall near his cabin where he removed a stone and drew out a can which contained $1,000, which was $13 10 less than the full amount which he received for the bar. The Chronicle says:

"Several people who have handled bullion said that the bogus bar was a very rank imitation. Rosa, who has sold lots of bullion in small quantities, says that he thought a thousand dollars a great deal of money to get for it, but he took that sum as he would have taken a hundred dollars if offered. The bank having found Rosa honest in the past, took the bar at its face value, without a close examination of it.

"A charge will probably be placed against McDonald in a day or so, and there is almost a certainty of his conviction. The penalty for obtaining money under false pretenses is from one to ten years in State Prison, and the maximum penalty for forgery is fourteen years. He will probably be prosecuted on the former charge.

"The $13 10 of missing money was recovered from a purse in the possession of Rosa to-day. The certificate given Rosa by McDonald was found on Rosa. The certificate from Dowling was found on McDonald.

"William Douglas to-day identified McDonald as a man who had lived in Dayton under the name of L. Walden, and is a nephew of a mill man named Theodore Vincent, formerly of Silver. He admitted his name later on, and it is said that he worked as a mill man around Silver and Dayton for eight or nine years."

THE FORESTERS.

A Housewarming—General Good Time Enjoyed by the Members and Invited Guests.

Last evening Court Mount Rose, Ancient Order of Foresters, of Reno gave a housewarming at their new hall. The members turned out in force and there was a large number of invited guests present. The following program was rendered:

Piano solo Miss Bessie Rossen

Recitation Miss Jose Rhodes

Song Miss Rose Becker

Recitation Miss Lillie Mannus

Piano duet Mrs. and Miss Rossen

Remarks on the order in general M. P. Light, High Court Secretary

Refreshments followed, after which cards and dancing concluded the evening's entertainment.

A feature of the evening was a game of progressive euchre, in which the gentleman's first prize was an admission to the order. Robt. Jones carried off the honors, and Mrs. Bradshaw took the lady's prize. Mrs. J. Gauthier and Will Dixon captured the booby prizes.

Haverly's Minstrels.

The date of the positive appearance of J. H. Haverly's Original Mastodon Minstrels has been finally agreed upon for Wednesday, November 6, at McKissick's Opera House. Yea, the great Haverly show is coming to town in all its entirety, and we will shortly have an opportunity of witnessing what is promised to be not only the grandest company ever organized, but the most varied program yet presented, embracing everything in the minstrel line that is entertaining and in pace with the times. Haverly presents to us the first minstrel show of the season, and will no doubt reap a harvest here, as he is also first in public favor, in fact first and foremost in all things theatrical. Billy Rice, Bert Shepard, E. M. Kayne, C. Ernst, the Emperors of Music, direct from London, and fully thirty other high-class artists will be the ones you will see in a grand minstrel festival. Sale of seats at Lake's Book Store.

A Fortune Awaiting.

A communication was received by the Enterprise yesterday from the Harry N. Morse Detective Agency asking for information concerning the whereabouts of one Edward McArdle, or if dead, any lawful heirs of said persons. The party above named was a miner at Hamilton, Nevada, in the year 1871. When last heard from he was in the White Pine country in 1875. He is said to have been at Virginia City at one time. The reason for this inquiry is that a sum of money is on hand ready to be paid over to said person or his lawful heirs upon proper identification. Mrs. John Tassell, whose maiden name was McArdle, has a cousin by the name of McArdle somewhere in this part of the world, but has not heard from him for many years.

To Whom It May Concern.

Having to raise a large amount of money, I will give during the balance of this month 10 cents discount on every dollar of cash purchased from 50 cents up. Carpets and linoleums are included in this offer. Those indebted to the firm are requested to make payments.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Items From Here, There and Everywhere.

An exchange says: "In the days of Midas whatever the man touched turned into gold; things are different now—touch a man with gold and he turns into anything."

The Dispatch says about four thousand head of sheep owned by J. G. Taylor of Rye Patch will arrive in town some time this week, and will be pastured in the northern part of the valley.

Lee Pratt committed suicide in Elko county last Sunday by placing a shot gun to his head and pulling the trigger with his toe. Appearances indicated that he had been dead two days when the body was found. He was a native of Ohio, aged 53 years.

The Dispatch says tramps broke into the new barn of W. S. Bailey at Wadsworth and stole $40 worth of clothing and blankets. Mr. Bailey thinks it is about time arrangements were made to compel tramps to move on as fast as they arrive in town.

The Austin Reveille says the Indians are not reliable weather prophets. They claim the coming winter will be mild because the pine nut crop is poor, whereas in 1890 the pine nut crop was a failure and the winter of 1893-94 was one of the most severe ever known in the history of the State. If the severity of this winter is to be judged by the pine nut crop, then look out for a repetition of '80-90.

The Hawthorne Bulletin says the new five-stamp mill at that place will be running to-day or Saturday. All the mechanics in town have been engaged during the past three weeks in putting it up, and the work has been well done. A concentrator is set up in connection with the mill so that all classes of ore which contain gold can be worked up to a very high percentage.

Halloween Funks

Quite a number of the young people were out last evening playing jokes on neighbors and in most cases simply indulged in some innocent amusement. A few gates were removed and in some places the substantial and permanent wooden sidewalks ordered to be put down under the town ordinance were dragged out in the middle of the street and turned upside down. In some cases property was damaged, presumably by hoodlums, and pistol shots were fired in several quarters of town. Five or six boys on horseback rode through several of the streets at a breakneck pace, the same crowd every now and then firing pistol shots as they rode along terrorizing pedestrians and people living on remote streets. Their names are known and they will probably be arrested and fined for riding through the streets in a reckless manner and discharging firearms contrary to the ordinances.

The old seminary bell pealed out at midnight and startled that portion of town, it having been silent for so long the residents hardly knew what to make of it. Constable Molniss and his deputies, also Officer Nash, were around and it kept them busy dodging from one part of town to another as some unusual demonstration would manifest itself.

The Caledonian Party.

The Scotch residents and many of their friends assembled at Army Hall last evening, and true to their national custom celebrated Halloween. The feature of the evening was the bagpipe playing of Donald Wier, one of the pipers who led the historical charge of the 6th Regiment of the British Army. Mr. Wier was costumed in real Highland dress, as were also several other gentlemen present.

D. D. McRae, foreman of the railroad shops at Truckee, danced the Highland fling in an excellent manner, the bagpipes furnishing the music.

The sword dance was given by A. A. Crawford and was a novel feature of the evening.

The songs by the Elite Glee Club, composed of Messrs. White, Russell, Macotte and Murray, were well rendered and greatly appreciated.

Scotch reels, strathspeys and a long list of the popular dances of the day filled the program. Dancing was kept up until long after midnight, and the festivities closed with all hands singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Mrs. Chancellor Derby will take place from the Derby ranch at Glendale at 1 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. The body will arrive on the express train from the west this morning and will be taken to the ranch where the services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Brady. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral.

Justice Court.

The preliminary examination of A. A. Smith, charged with the attempt at poisoning Ed Laird and others near the Fox mountains a few days ago, was concluded in Judge Linn's court yesterday. Considerable testimony was heard and the Judge concluded that the evidence warranted the holding of the defendant to appear before the Grand Jury. His bonds were fixed at $1,000.

Going! Going! Gone!

Hyman Fredricks has gone to the expense of employing a first-class auctioneer from San Francisco to dispose of his entire stock of watches, jewelry and silverware. The sale will be conducted in a systematic way and will be strictly under the supervision of the auctioneer, the goods to go at whatever they will bring under the hammer. Buyers will have the privilege of making comparisons and knowing the quality of goods they purchase. The sale is a go and no humbug, and will commence on Saturday evening at 6:30 and continue on Monday and each business day thereafter at 2:30 and 6:30 p. m. until the stock is disposed of.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merits to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale: Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them, and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Favorably Impressed.

Robert Morrow, the mining magnate of San Francisco, visited the Comstock mines on Wednesday and showed himself to be favorably impressed with the outlook in that district. It is not known whether he intends to invest there or not, but the fact that he took the time and trouble to visit the prospects and seemed very much interested in the proposed developments would indicate that he has more than a passing interest in what might be accomplished.

Afternoon Tea.

Flit Hartwell in her last syndicate article says: "I don't recommend any special brand of tea for afternoon four o'clocks. I do, however, know all about the best tea to take at night. Parks' Tea will certainly clear your complexion and purify your blood. You will be surprised at the improvement if you take a cup of Parks' Tea each night." Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundermar, of Diamond, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Hives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succumbing to La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store. Regular size, 50 cts. and $1.

Evolution of a Name.
An amusing account is given of the evolution of a name. A man named Halfpenny lived in Dublin at the end of the last century. Having been very successful in business, his children persuaded him to change his name to a more dignified one, which he did by dropping the last letter.
In the course of time the orthography was also changed, and when the man died he was buried as Mr. Halpen. The fortunes of the family increased still further, and the son soon dropped the H.
The next transition was an equally easy one, and he who had run the streets as little Kenny Halfpenny came out as Kenneth MacAlpin, the descendant of a hundred kings.—Boston Traveller.

Spider Venom Not Deadly.
A recent article by an entomological authority contains the following: "The tarantula of the west and south, the red belted spider of New Zealand, the hepta of Italy and several other species of the spider family have the reputation of being deadly venomous. The fact is all spiders are more or less poisonous, but none of them is deadly. I doubt if there is an authentic case on record of a healthy human being dying from a spider's bite."
The American Language.
The prevalence of lower jaw rigidity among our men of all callings and degrees of culture is amazing. The following report of a conversation in a street car between two promiscuous well educated business men does them no injustice:
"Wych." (How are you?)
"Whabeh." (How are you?)
"Iae deh." (Fine day.)
"S, uh call at s." (Yes, I call it so.)
"Wah thing gen?" (How are things in general?)
"Wel, weh don aill, much, thah; sar kee thiz tim these tio." (Well, we're doing a little, not much, though; it's hard to keep things stirring these times.)
"Suh. Bout rye. Fine anh." (That's so. You're about right. I find it so.)—Forum.

Where Millions Are Made.
There is a gray, seamy building towering up from the foot of Broadway. There are no signs upon its walls. Its windows are not lustered. It preserves an air of mystery. The only outward clue to the solution of it is the rubber doorman, for in the intricacies of its design one can cipher the letters "S. O. Co." The building looks toward the North river and over the vast oil yards and refineries of the Kill von Kull. It is the headquarters of the most powerful trade combination in America—the Standard Oil Company. It is here that the Rockefeller brothers toil and spin their millions.—New York Advertiser.

Rubinstein and Talmud.
Rubinstein was undoubtedly inaccurate at times. People who hold scores through these long programmes could easily find that out. He not only embroidered even Beethoven, but he would invent Bach. What he invented was probably quite as good as what he happened to forget and always extremely interesting. Still, it was not note for note, and that is what the daddies gloat over. Below was more accurate, but even Balow forgot or manufactured a bar or two occasionally. But these, if spots, were spots in the sun, and certainly all Rubinstein did or left undone served but to accentuate his individuality and display his genius in new and startling lights.—Fortnightly Review.

A Story of Thackeray.
There is a story of Thackeray, shortly after the publication of "Vanity Fair," dining with a friend and receiving an introduction to his next neighbor, "Captain Crawley of the Life Guards." Thackeray looked greatly annoyed, scarcely opened his lips to this gentleman and afterward told his host in an aggrieved tone that "he liked a joke as well as any man, but there was a time and a place for all things."
No joking allusion to a character of his novel had, however, been designed or perpetrated. The fellow guest actually was a Captain Crawley and held a commission in the Life Guards.

The Gulf Stream.
According to Captain Maury, the gulf stream runs up hill. He shows that after emerging from the gulf of Mexico this famous current of warm water broadens out toward the north and becomes correspondingly more and more shallow. Thus, its depth off the island of Benin is about 200 fathoms, while off Cape Hatteras it has shallowed to about 100 fathoms. He calculates the ascent at ten inches to the mile.
